

JOY AND ALLAN NACHMAN TEEN LEADERSHIP TRIP TO ISRAEL JOB DESCRIPTION

The Joy and Allan Nachman Teen Leadership Trip to Israel is a unique opportunity to experience Israel in a leadership role. Have fun while building friendships, developing life skills, and making a difference in the lives of a teenagers.

The Joy and Allan Nachman Teen Leadership Trip to Israel involves working closely with entering high school seniors, experiencing outdoor adventures throughout Israel, while acting as a friend and role model. Staff are responsible for developing and implementing creative programming throughout the trip, ensuring their safety and facilitating leadership programming. Due to the nature of the trip, staff will not have days off. This position is a 24-hour a day job for the duration of the trip.

Working for The Joy and Allan Nachman Teen Leadership Trip to Israel has the following benefits:

- Competitive Salary
- Room and Board
- Develop life skills today's employers demand
- Enjoy a Jewish atmosphere and foster your Jewish identity
- Travel throughout Israel

Requirements for The Joy and Allan Nachman Teen Leadership Trip to Israel staff:

- Staff must be at least 21 years of age by June 17, 2019
- Experience working with teenagers
- Youth group or leadership experience is preferred

Tamarack Camps is an equal employment opportunity workplace.